Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The services performed by gallant American Veterans have demonstrated the unselfish willingness of our nation to meet the challenge of those forces wishing to defeat, through armed conflict, the cause of individual determination; and,

WHEREAS, August 28, 1980, is designated as Veterans Day at the South Dakota State Fair in Huron; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Veterans Council will present two stage programs during the day; and,

WHEREAS, Each veterans organization will have a booth for information for all veterans of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The nation and the free world are eternally grateful for the contributions of American Veterans to the advancement of the cause of an honorable world peace:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, August 28, 1980, as

and I further ask that all South Dakotans participate as fully as possible in the spirit of this day, remembering those who made the sacrifices, those who gave their lives, those who are disabled, those who are still missing, and all those whose lives were interrupted by their service to our country in the armed forces.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty

William Janklow

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR
